

BE A LOCAL SUPER HERO

FLY OVERSEAS IN A SINGLE BOUND

Amsterdam, Frankfurt, Tokyo . . . and beyond

Video Contest

Whether you're a mild-mannered reporter, a reclusive billionaire or a science whiz teenager with a radioactive spider bite, you too can be a Local Super Hero! Fly overseas in a single bound on one of the nonstop international flights at Portland International Airport.

To get you going, we'll even give you a boost. Enter our video contest, and you might win a trip on Portland International Airport's nonstop Lufthansa service to Frankfurt or Northwest (a subsidiary of Delta Air Lines) service to Tokyo or Amsterdam.

To enter, create and upload a short video (one minute or less) telling us how you can be a Local Super Hero by using a PDX nonstop international flight. Wear your own Local Super Hero costume! Be creative! Make us laugh or make us think, but don't do anything dangerous. And remember, use your super speed and get your video entry in by midnight March 20, 2009.

And don't forget to Be a Local Super Hero to your community by booking your next business or leisure travel on one of Portland's convenient nonstop flights.
